Response:
To introduce Entrepreneurship in New Media earlier in the curriculum, we have removed the senior-level prerequisite and changed the course level from 4000 to 3000. The faculty felt the course did not require the kind of requisite knowledge that only seniors might have. It was deemed appropriate for juniors and even some sophomores who might be ahead on credits. In our revised 8-semester plan, this course moved from Term 8 to Term 6, as more truly-advanced/senior-standing courses shifted into the final year.
