Description of request	ADV 4101 has had ENC 3254 (writing for the disciplines) as a pre-requisite. We want students to take the strategic communication section of this course. This past summer a new course code for writing for the disciplines--strategic communication was approved, ENC 3252. We need to update the system so students don't have error messages when trying to add ADV 4101 and the system shows the correct, updated pre-req ENC 3252.

Rationale The English department has a new code for our discipline specific writing in the disciplines course. Formally, this was ENC 3254 and students were asked to take the strategic Communication section. As of summer 2020, the course has its own number, ENC 3252. Thus, we are just making the pre-reqs match with this new course code and so the registration system recognizes the appropriate course number.
