Name Computer Science Minor

Major or Minor Code CSE

Effective Term Earliest Available

Effective Year Earliest Available

Differences from Residential Program None

Pedagogical Rationale/Justification This is a high-demand discipline; offering the minor via UF Online will enable UF Online program students to earn a CSE minor and contribute to their competitiveness in the marketplace.

Impact on Existing Residential and Online Programs We do not expect any impact on the campus CSE minor.

CSE Minor

This proposal is to offer the existing CSE Minor via UF Online. Note: pending credit changes are listed for clarity.

General

This minor provides the academic background in the application of computers to scientific and engineering problems and prepares students for graduate study in computer-related disciplines.

College : Herbert Wertheim College of Engineering

↑Credits : 20-24 | Completed with minimum grades of C

This minor requires a minimum 2.5 grade point average to apply for admission.

Majors Not Eligible

- Computer engineering, computer science, and digital arts and sciences majors (CEN, CSE, CEE, DAS) in the CISE and ECE departments
- Computer science majors (CSC) in the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Required Courses

All courses required for the minor are already offered regularly via UF Online to serve the CSC major.

CODE	TITLE
MAC2312	Analytic Geometry and Calculus 2

Dr. Taylor:

Thank you for reaching out to engage on the College of Engineering's plan to offer a new online, undergraduate minor in Computer Science. We are pleased to welcome this minor into UF Online and I believe that this program will contribute positively to the needs of UF Online students, especially those who seek to complement their major by acquiring skills in such an increasingly important, ever-growing field as this one.

UF Online looks forward to working with you and your colleagues to ensure this program thrives for many years to come!

Sincerely,

Evangeline J. Tsibris Cummings
Assistant Provost and Director of UF Online
