Department	Approved	CLAS - Spanish and Portuguese	Gillian Lord-Ward	While doing the semester 6-8 tracking, we discovered a conflict between the critical tracking and the opposed model plan for the Portuguese track. This new model plan fixes that misalignment.	8/7/2019

Current Curriculum for Major Request to modify the model 8 semester plan for the Portuguese track in the HLL major. When major was approved, there was a discrepancy between the proposed critical tracking and the proposed model plan, which we did not realize at the time.
Proposed Curriculum Changes The proposed 8-semester model plan now aligns with the critical tracking in the Portuguese track, and also more closely mirrors the model plans for the other tracks within the HLL major.
UF Online currciculum change No
Pedagogical Rationale/Justification Parity within the catalog copy for the major (making sure tracking and model plan align); parity within the different tracks of the major.
Impact on Enrollment, Retention, Graduation None. The tracking requirements are the same, and so current students have been advised correctly all along. The proposed change is only to make the model plan fit within the critical tracking requirements.
Assessment Data Review Not applicable.
Academic Learning Compact and Academic Assessment Plan Not applicable.

Students are expected to complete the writing requirement while in the process of taking the courses below. Students are also expected to complete the general education international (GE-N) and diversity (GE-D) requirements concurrently with another general education requirement (typically, GE-C, H, or S).

To remain on track, students must complete the appropriate critical-tracking courses, which appear in bold. These courses must be completed by the terms as listed above in the Critical Tracking criteria.

This semester plan represents an example progression through the major. Actual courses and course order may be different depending on the student's academic record and scheduling availability of courses. Prerequisites still apply.
