REGULATIONS OF THE
UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

3.0051 Lost or Abandoned Property.

(1) For the purposes of this regulation, the following definitions shall apply:

(a) “University campus” or “campus” shall include those lands located in the City of Gainesville, Florida, occupied or controlled by the University of Florida, and bounded generally by 13th Street on the east, University Avenue on the north, 34th Street on the west and Archer Road on the south, along with any other educational or residential facilities occupied or controlled by the University within Alachua County, Florida.

(b) “Date of notification” is defined as the date on which an identified owner of lost or abandoned property is notified by the Property Custodian that such property is in custody and informed of the location and means by which the property may be released. If notification is by mail, the date of notification is five business days after the date the letter is mailed.

(c) “Date of receipt” is defined as the date lost or abandoned property comes into the custody of the Property Custodian as recorded by the Property Custodian.

(d) “Discarded items” are defined as tangible personal property and other personal objects left on campus that have no identifiable owner, no appreciable value, and no apparent intrinsic value to the rightful owner. Discarded items are not subject to the procedures set forth in this rule.

(e) “Lost or abandoned property” is defined as tangible personal property with some appreciable value or apparent intrinsic value to the rightful owner that has been mislaid or deposited on campus and left unattended, including vehicles that are deemed abandoned in accordance with subsection (2) of this rule. Lost or abandoned property may or may not have an identifiable owner.

(f) “Notice of impoundment” is defined as a letter sent by the University of Florida Police Department (University Police Department) to the registered owner of an impounded vehicle via certified mail or a notice posted on the vehicle pursuant to Regulation 3.0131 notifying the registered owner that the vehicle has been impounded and stating the place and means by which the vehicle’s release may be secured.

(g) “Property custodian” is defined as the individual(s) designated by the University President to manage the transfer, storage, and disposal of property lost or abandoned on campus in accordance with Section 705.18, Fla. Stat.; persons designated by the Property Custodian to carry out any of these duties.

(2) Property Deemed Abandoned. A vehicle that has been impounded pursuant to Regulation 3.013 will be deemed abandoned if not claimed and released pursuant to subsection 3.015(9) within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of impoundment or fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of the notice of impoundment, whichever is later, or, if the impoundment has been appealed pursuant to subsection 3.015(9), within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the probable cause hearing, or if the probable cause determination is appealed, within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the final determination. The date the vehicle is deemed abandoned in accordance with the above shall be recorded by the Property Custodian as the date of receipt of abandoned property for purposes of this regulation. Property deemed abandoned shall be treated as abandoned property under the procedures set forth in subsection (3) of this regulation.

(3) Procedures.

(a) All reports pertaining to missing, lost, stolen or abandoned property that is or may be located on campus shall be made to the University Police Department.

(b) All lost or abandoned property found on campus shall be delivered to the Property Custodian who shall record the date of receipt of the property and retain custody of the property until disposed of in accordance with this regulation.

(c) If the rightful owner of the property is identifiable, the Property Custodian shall make reasonable efforts to contact and notify the rightful owner of the location and means by which the property may be released.

(d) In determining whether the rightful owner is identifiable, the Property Custodian shall compare outstanding reports made to the University Police Department of missing, lost, or stolen property to the property in custody. Property that appears to be recovered stolen property may be retained by the University Police Department as necessary for evidentiary and/or investigative purposes.

(e) If lost or abandoned property is not claimed by the rightful owner within thirty (30) calendar days from the date of receipt recorded by the Property Custodian, or a longer period of time as may be deemed appropriate by the Property Custodian, ~~such property will be sold at public auction in accordance~~ the University will dispose or make use of such property in accordance with Section 705.18, Fla. Stat. The rightful owner of such property may reclaim the property at any time prior ~~to the University's disposition or use.~~ to sale.

1.0065 Prohibited Consensual Relationships.

(1) It is the policy of the University that faculty adhere to the proper role as teacher, researcher, intellectual mentor and counselor and not engage in conduct that calls into question the integrity of the evaluative or other academic processes related to students. It is also the policy of the University that faculty refrain from exploiting or coercing students or creating the appearance of exploitation or coercion. Consistent with these policies, the following romantic or sexual relationships between faculty and students are prohibited:

(a) Sexual or romantic relationships between faculty and undergraduate students, regardless of academic discipline, department, or college affiliation; and

(b) Sexual or romantic relationships between faculty and graduate or professional students when both parties are affiliated with the same field, degree program or department, and under any circumstances in which the faculty member directly or indirectly exercises academic, evaluative, or supervisory authority over the student, or may be reasonably expected to do so in the foreseeable future.

(2) Faculty who have, or have had, a sexual or romantic relationship with a student are prohibited from directly or indirectly exercising academic, evaluative, or supervisory authority over that student. Relationships that pre-date one or both parties' affiliation with the University and that would otherwise be prohibited under this regulation shall be promptly disclosed by the faculty member to his or her dean or designee.

(3) Violations of this regulation by faculty will result in disciplinary action up through dismissal.
