

FOR ACADEMIC ASSESSMENT COMMITTEE DISCUSSION

Graduate Assessment Map for:

Program: Ph.D. in Music Education

College: Fine Arts, School of Music

SLOs	Assessment 1	Assessment 2	Assessment 3
Knowledge
Demonstrate a thorough understanding and comprehension of subject matter relevant to the discipline, including music education research, practice, historical, measurement and contemporary trends in music education	Test development, administration, and report of findings in MUE 7746, Measurement and Evaluation in Music	Comprehensive written examination, at end of coursework	Comprehensive oral examination, after written examination is passed
Skills
Demonstrate a thorough understanding of and comprehension of traditional and current research methods in music education.	Dissertation topic paper, presented to committee upon successful completion of the written and oral examinations	Dissertation proposal, first three chapters of proposed dissertation	Final examination, dissertation defense
Professional Behavior
Demonstrate a thorough understanding and comprehension of the application of research methods in Music Education as applied to a specific research project, and be able to present research in a professional environment.	Research project and final report of findings in MUE6785, Methods of Research in Music Education	Research project and final report of findings in MUE 7685, Foundations of Musical Behavior	Research presentation to the UF Collegiate chapter of the National Association for Music Education (NAfME)* * If funding is available, at least one professional research conference presentation