Department of Journalism, College of Journalism and Communications Undergraduate Academic Assessment Plan

Mission Statement

The Department of Journalism's mission is to:

- Teach the art and craft of excellent journalism;
- Study journalism and related subjects;
- Foster an appreciation for accuracy, fairness, truth and diversity;
- Develop and cultivate an understanding of the rights, roles and responsibilities of news media professionals and scholars in a democratic society;
- Support the missions of the College of Journalism and Communications and the University of Florida.

The department's mission statement closely mirrors the goals of both the college and the university, as outlined in its mission statement:

College

Our mission is to prepare exemplary professional practitioners and scholars for journalism and communications fields and to generate and exchange new knowledge about these fields. The College is the home for the world's most respected educators and scholars who advance the value, practice, and understanding of journalism and communications in a democratic society. The faculty are committed to preparing professionals and scholars to practice and teach in a global society, providing leading research and service while generating and sharing knowledge.

University

It is the mission of the University of Florida to offer broad-based, exclusive public education, leading-edge research and service to the citizens of Florida, the nation and the world. The fusion of these three endeavors stimulates a remarkable intellectual vitality and generates a synthesis that promises to be the university's greatest strength.

The university maintains its dedication to excellent teaching and researching by creating a strong and flexible foundation for higher education in the 21st century. The university welcomes the full exploration of our intellectual boundaries and supports our faculty and students in the creation of new knowledge and the pursuit of new ideas.

Teaching is a fundamental purpose of this university at both the undergraduate and graduate levels. Research and scholarship are integral to the education process and to the expansion of our understanding of the natural world, the intellect and the senses. Service reflects the university's obligation to share the benefits of its research and knowledge for the public good.

Shared Mission

The Department of Journalism is committed to graduate who be leaders in the mass communications industries. Graduates will demonstrate excellent communication and leadership skills. Graduates will identify legal and ethical issues pertaining to the journalism field, as well as the various approaches to solutions to these issues.

Indirect Assessments:

Enrollment figures for JOU 3101 Reporting, the prerequisite for most upper-division courses.

Advisory Council feedback: The Department of Journalism Advisory Council visits our college in both the fall and spring semesters. They have several meetings with students both informally during a pizza dinner and more formally during portfolio reviews. They will provide insight into the state of our students.

Awards: Students routinely receive awards in national journalism competitions such as the Hearst Awards. Our students are also competitive in prestigious internships from the Dow Jones Newspaper Fund. These internships require an extensive exam.
