

FDTE Active Learning Initiative:

Office of Faculty Development and Teaching Excellence (FDTE)

Active Learning Initiative: Pedagogy and Spaces Canvas Community (31 members)

Provides the following:

- What is Active Learning?
- Activities and Strategies
- Technology
- UF Spaces
- Research
- Feedback and Follow-up

Active Learning Initiative Workshops and Faculty Discussions

- Summer Program Meetings held every other week
- Explore different aspects of Active Learning
- Visit available spaces at UF
- Share ideas, what worked, what did not, what to try next
- Fall online Beyond the Podium Faculty Discussion on Active Learning (rescheduled to October 25th due to the hurricane)

Active Learning Resources and ideas

Visit the Teach.ufl.edu for information on active learning including:

- Overview
- Strategies
- Research
- Activities
- Visit the FDTE Guides for targeted information on Active Learning and related topics

Request Assistance from FDTE:

- Visit an Active Learning classroom
 - Members of the Active Learning Initiative group have shared class schedules to facilitate interested visitors
- Request an Active Learning Consultation