1. The Provost's office is in the process of contracting with Academic Analytics to provide the faculty with a new collaborative tool. Dr. Marie Zeglen will be presenting the basic outline of this tool and explain options for how UF could configure the tool. This will provide the committee an opportunity to understand the tool's capability and to provide critical input into optimizing its configuration for our faculty. Some insight into the tool's capabilities can be found at <http://www.academicanalytics.com/>
2. Anti-plagiarism software – Fedro Zazeuta
3. Unizin – Fedro Zazeuta
