

Committee Comments from Previous Minutes

FOS 2001	Man's Food <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Main concern: Provide specific evidence of strong academic rigor and a solid departure from previous iterations of course.</li> <li>• Requesting additional information in regards to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ In order to better assess the rigor of the new course the committee would like the instructor to provide a sample of the actual assignments, quizzes, and exams from the course.</li> <li>○ Provide specific readings within the schedule of weekly topics and relevant areas</li> <li>○ Inclusion of how and where students will learn proper reading and review of scholarly research relating to topic(s) of course. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>▪ Both on a population research basis, and individual (dietetics) research basis.</li> <li>▪ Provide examples of student generated data and hypothesis testing which cannot be easily fabricated and exhibits a departure from previous iterations of the course.</li> </ul> </li> <li>○ Is topic of genetically modified foods included within the topic range of course?</li> </ul> </li> <li>• Committee would like instructor to attend April meeting to respond to questions/concerns.</li> <li>• Committee would like course to be reviewed (with revisions) at April meeting.</li> <li>• Motion to Recycle. Motion Seconded. Motion Passed.</li> </ul>
ALS 4404	Insects in Italy First time being reviewed by committee (temporary/one semester approval)
WST 3335	Women and Gender Analysis through American Film First time being reviewed by committee