Course Description Development of individualized learning objectives and evaluation of student performance objectives for the doctoral experiential experience.

Prerequisites OTH 6XXX Doctoral Mentorship 1 (B)

Co-requisites n/a

Rationale and Placement in Curriculum Content meets the intent of program Student Learning Objectives. Also meets educational standards of accrediting body (ACOTE standards). Content builds upon previous courses and clinical experiences.

Course Objectives Student Learning Objectives: ACOTE Standards

Upon the conclusion of this course, the student will:

1. Select a residency site and site mentor related to the student's area(s) of interest and professional and career goals.
2. Develop measurable learning objectives for the residency related to professional and career goals.
3. Create a plan for the residency linked to the student's professional and career goals.

Course activities support the following ACOTE standards:

- Advising related to professional coursework, fieldwork education, and the experiential component of the program must be the responsibility of the occupational therapy faculty. (A.3.9.)
- Ensure that the doctoral experiential component is designed and administered by faculty and provided in setting(s) consistent with the program's curriculum design, including individualized specific objectives and plans for supervision. (C.2.1.)

- Ensure that the student is mentored by an individual with expertise consistent with the student's area of focus. The mentor does not have to be an occupational therapist. (C.2.4.)

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS, ROLES, AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR INPUT

Expectations Regarding Course Behavior

While it is anticipated that professional occupational therapy students will behave with tact and courtesy on-line, the department has adopted the following guidelines for Internet etiquette.

- 1 The golden rule for communicating on-line is similar to the one we have been taught as children: don't deliberately hurt another's feelings (tact); imagine how you would feel in another person's shoes (empathy); be human (humane). In the real world we can see facial expressions, gestures, and hear tone of voice. We do not have that extra information on-line. It is easy to misinterpret the other person's meaning. Be cognizant of how you are communicating to your faculty and peers on-line.
- 2 Flaming is an expression of a strongly held (usually negative) opinion without holding back emotion. Tact is not, it's objective! This on-line class does not allow flaming.
- 3 YELLING: Using all capital letters in your writing is considered yelling on-line. It is very annoying and not appropriate. Please make sure your caps lock is off.
- 4 Flaming, yelling or inappropriate comments are considered disruptive to a professional learning environment. If you are angry or upset related to something in this class, make an appointment with the instructor for a telephone conference. Students who are disrespectful of the instructor or fellow classmates during discussion will be denied access to the course until the matter can be resolved.

Academic Integrity

Students are expected to act in accordance with the University of Florida policy on academic integrity. As a student at the University of Florida, you have committed yourself to uphold the Honor Code, which includes the following pledge:

"We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honesty and integrity."

You are expected to exhibit behavior consistent with this commitment to the UF academic community, and on all work submitted for credit at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied:

"On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment."

It is your individual responsibility to know and comply with all university policies and procedures regarding academic integrity and the Student Honor Code. Violations of the Honor Code at the University of Florida will not be tolerated. Violations will be reported to the Dean of Students Office for consideration of disciplinary action. For additional information regarding Academic Integrity, please see Student Conduct and Honor Code or the Graduate Student Website for additional details:

<https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>

Please remember cheating, lying, misrepresentation, or plagiarism in any form is unacceptable and inexcusable behavior.

Online Faculty Course Evaluation Process

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/>.

SUPPORT SERVICES

Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodations. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

Inclusive Learning Environment

Public health and health professions are based on the belief in human dignity and on respect for the individual. As we share our personal beliefs inside or outside of the classroom, it is always with the understanding that we value and respect diversity of background, experience, and opinion, where every individual feels valued. We believe in, and promote, openness and tolerance of differences in ethnicity and culture, and we respect differing personal, spiritual, religious and political values. We further believe that celebrating such diversity enriches the quality of the educational experiences we provide our students and enhances our own personal and professional relationships. We embrace The University of Florida's Non-Discrimination Policy, which reads, "The University shall actively promote equal opportunity policies and practices conforming to laws against discrimination. The University is committed to non-discrimination with respect to race, creed, color, religion, age, disability, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, marital status, national origin, political opinions or affiliations, genetic information and veteran status as protected under the Vietnam Era Veterans' Readjustment Assistance Act." If you have questions or concerns about your rights and responsibilities for inclusive learning environment, please see your instructor or refer to the Office of Multicultural & Diversity Affairs website: www.multicultural.ufl.edu
