Rationale and Placement in Curriculum The capstone allows students to bring together the learning in the major and demonstrate they have met the departmental learning goals. This gives students a chance to understand their own growth over time in their chosen fields. It also serves as a bridge to the next step for students, asking students to extend their knowledge, working either independently or collaboratively with peers under faculty supervision. It also provides information to our department about strengths and gaps in our curriculum at the same time serving as almost an assessment for the department/major/concentration. Not only are students demonstrating skills and knowledge learned through their undergraduate career, they are also preparing for life after college through various exercises in resume development, personal branding and creating a portfolio website.

Course Objectives

policies which can be found in the online catalog at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>

Attendance is recorded and you WILL lose attendance and participation points for absence from class time. This could affect up to 15% of your final grade. There are NO free absences from class. We only meet once a week. For each absence you will lose class participation points, unless you have a note and it is excused and approved by UF.

Absences and Make-up Work

Students are expected to be in class on time and remain until the dismissal. Absences are unexcused when the professor has not been notified of an acceptable reason within 24 hours of the class meeting. When absent, please contact a fellow student to find out what was missed. You are responsible for all material covered or assigned during classes, even if you are not there. Your grade on late assignments will drop one letter grade for every day they are late.

Academic Integrity

UF students are bound by the Honor Pledge, which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code.

On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions.
