Responses

Current Certificate Name: Family Life Education

Effective Term : Fall

Effective Year : 2016

Requested Action : Other (selecting this option will open additional form fields below)

Change Certificate Name?: No

Change Certificate Name on Transcript?: No

Change Credit Hours?: Yes

Current Credit Hours: 2

Proposed Credit Hours: 3

Change Certificate Description?: No

Change Certificate Prerequisites?: No

Change Certificate Requirements?: No

Impact on Program: We see negligible impact as we are only adding 1 additional credit hour to a course that is already a requirement of the certificate

Rationale for Proposed Change(s): The Undergraduate committee in FYCS decided to increase the credits for FYC 4941--Practicum in FYCS from a 2-3 credit option to a 3 credit only option.

Family Life Education

Credits: 3~~2~~⁸, completed with minimum grades of C

Prepares students to become certified family life educators. This national certification (CFLE) through the National Council on Family Relations provides higher-level knowledge and skills for working with families in prevention-oriented educational programs.

The certificate can be completed as part of the family, youth and community sciences major and is intended to provide an advantage in today's competitive job market. Courses in 10 key areas of family life and an internship prepare students to offer specialized programs to families.

Students must be admitted to the FYCS major and must maintain all required academic progress standards for the major. FYC 3001 is a prerequisite or corequisite for many of the required courses.
