College	Approved	PV - APUG College	Lindner, Angela S	Submitting a syllabus for this approval is difficult since this course is intended to be open-ended in topic and structure. The submitter wishes to change the course to variable credit in order to be able to use it for its intended purpose. Doing so will align it with the IDH3931, which is variable credit and is currently used for freshmen. Changing this course to variable credit will mirror IDH3931 and will allow it to be used more appropriately for freshmen, reserving IDH3931 for more senior students.	1/11/2016
