RationaleThe change from "ECO 3101" to "ECO 3101 or ECP 3703" is driven by the recent decision to reopen the economics minor. The economics minor requires ECP 3703 -- whereas the economics major requires ECO 3101 -- and since the minor had been closed a few years ago, the Department of Economics had phased out offering ECP 3703. As such, when ECO 4104 was proposed, ECP 3703 was not incorporated into the prerequisites.

ECO 3101 and ECP 3703 have similar course objectives. In fact, the UF Catalog prohibits students from receiving credit for both courses due to substantial overlap. As such, the Department believes that ECP 3703 would satisfy the same previous content requirement as the ECO 3101 prerequisite does.
