OFFICE HOURS: I am in the office (Rinker 303) Mon – Fri; hours vary depending on travel and meetings. However, I am usually available 8am – 3 pm. You can email me any time.

*COURSE WEBSITE: <http://lss.at.ufl.edu>

* COURSE COMMUNICATIONS: There is a General Discussion tab that can be used, or send me an email through the course email. Urgent messages can be sent to my campus email - Jeffrey.lindsey@ufl.edu .

REQUIRED TEXT: *Strategic & Tactical Considerations on the Fireground 3rd Edition
Smith, J.P. Brady Fire Series ISBN: 978-0-13-215881-7*

*ADDITIONAL RESOURCES: Use resources on the course site under the Resource tab.

*COURSE DESCRIPTION: The course covers incident command at multiple-alarm incidents, stressing rapid fireground decision-making, safety, personnel accountability, and communications.

*PREREQUISITE KNOWLEDGE AND SKILLS: Junior or Senior standing

PURPOSE OF COURSE: This course examines concepts and principles of functioning at various major incidents. It includes coursework in National Incident Management System--Incident Command Systems (NIMS ICS), mutual aid and automatic response, industrial, healthcare, and other venues. It incorporates all types of catastrophic incidents including fire, disasters, mass shootings, evacuations, etc.

COURSE GOALS AND/OR OBJECTIVES: By the end of this course, students will:

- 1. Explain the main components of pre-fire planning and identify steps needed for a pre-fire plan review.*
- 2. Describe the steps taken during size-up.*
- 3. Examine the significance of fireground communications.*
- 4. Identify the roles of the National Incident Management System (NIMS0) and Incident Management System (ICS) as they relate to major incidents.*
- 5. Evaluate the various roles and responsibilities in ICS/NIMS.*

* HOW THIS COURSE RELATES TO THE STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES IN THE FIRE EMERGENCY SERVICES PROGRAM: Identify and evaluate organizational problems associated with fire and emergency services. Illustrate knowledge and legal application of safety, health and environmental regulations at state and federal levels. Demonstrate strong verbal and written communication skills for leadership in fire and emergency services.

*TEACHING PHILOSOPHY: I am expecting students to demonstrate a working knowledge of the subject. You need to be creative when you complete your assignments, but your written work should reflect professionalism. Your work needs to be complete and written in such a manner that someone can pick up your document and understand what you are trying to convey. Most of all, your work needs to be supported with research and cited properly in APA format.

*INSTRUCTIONAL METHODS: The course is designed for individual and group interactivity. It is important to post and respond to discussion questions in the course within the time frame allotted. This provides a learning environment by enabling you to network with other students in the course. The assignments are individual-based to give you the opportunity to do a variety of activities, in many cases, similar to what you will be doing in your role as a leader in the emergency services profession.

COURSE POLICIES:

ATTENDANCE POLICY: The course is designed in module format. You should check the site at least once a week. You are required to complete the assignments, including discussion questions, within the time period designated on the module. There will be meetings set up throughout the course. Requirements for class attendance, make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at:

<https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

*QUIZ/EXAM POLICY: There is a final project for this course. There are no exams or quizzes.

MAKE-UP POLICY: To receive credit, you must contact me if you are going to be late submitting any assignment.

*ASSIGNMENT POLICY: All assignments have a due date. Please be sure to check the date and time it is due in each module.

*COURSE TECHNOLOGY: Class meetings will require a web camera and mic/audio. If you are not able to use a web camera you will need to at least provide audio/mic. You can also call in by phone.

* UF'S HONESTY POLICY

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor of this class.

UF POLICIES:

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACCOMMODATING STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: Students requesting accommodation for disabilities must first register with the Dean of Students Office (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/>). The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation. You must submit this documentation prior to submitting assignments or taking the quizzes or exams. Accommodations are not retroactive; therefore, students should contact the office as soon as possible in the term for which they are seeking accommodations.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ACADEMIC MISCONDUCT: Academic honesty and integrity are fundamental values of the University community. Students should be sure that they understand the UF Student Honor Code at <http://www.dso.ufl.edu/students.php>.

*NETIQUETTE: COMMUNICATION COURTESY: All members of the class are expected to follow rules of common courtesy in all email messages, threaded discussions and chats. [Describe what is expected and what will occur as a result of improper behavior] <http://teach.ufl.edu/docs/NetiquetteGuideforOnlineCourses.pdf>

EVALUATION PROCESS:

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>.

All UCC1 forms and each UCC2 form that proposes a change in the course description or credit hours must include this checklist in addition to a complete syllabus. Check the box if the attached syllabus includes the indicated information.

Syllabus MUST contain the following information:

- Instructor contact information (and TA if applicable)
- Course objectives and/or goals
- A weekly course schedule of topics and assignments
- Required and recommended textbooks
- Methods by which students will be evaluated and their grades determined
- A statement related to class attendance, make-up exams and other work such as: "Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>."
- A statement related to accommodations for students with disabilities such as: "Students requesting classroom accommodation must first register with the Dean of Student Office. The Dean of Students Office will provide documentation to the student who must then provide this documentation to the instructor when requesting accommodation."
- Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points. This may be achieved by including a link to the appropriate undergraduate catalog web page <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>.
- A statement informing students of the online course evaluation process such as: "Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course based on 10 criteria. These evaluations are conducted online at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at <https://evaluations.ufl.edu>."

It is recommended that syllabi contain the following information:

1. Critical dates for exams and other work
2. Class demeanor expected by the professor (e.g., tardiness, cell phone usage)
3. UF's honesty policy regarding cheating, plagiarism, etc. Suggested wording: UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, "We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: "On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment." The Honor Code (<http://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/>) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obliged to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor of TAs in this class.
4. Phone number and contact site for university counseling services and mental health services: 392-1575, <http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx>
University Police Department: 392-1111 or 9-1-1 for emergencies.
