Course Description A broad historical study of the Turks in world history. Emphasis is placed on the Ottoman Turks, the Young Turks, and various upheavals in Turkey alongside social and cultural topics including gender, daily life, workers, and migrations.
Prerequisites The prerequisite is completion of a 2000 level course in European Studies or the instructor’s permission.
Co-requisites None
Rationale and Placement in Curriculum The rich history and culture of the Turkish world are of increasing interest to the Western world. UF students, while progressing through the 21st century, will be interested in understanding Turkey, a strategic country connecting Europe and the United States to Central Asia and the Middle East.
Course Objectives At the conclusion of this course, the students will be able to:
... describe major themes in Turkish history
... explain and provide representational examples of the cumulative effect of Turkish politics and culture on European and Middle Eastern collective memory
... relate significant events in Turkish history to their impact on European and Islamic history

Links and Policies
Class Attendance and Make-Up Policy
Attendance, taken regularly during class meetings, and discussion participation are required for success. Repeated absences also affect your performance on exams and quizzes since they will be based on lectures and discussions. Missing class likewise means missing participation and falling behind in other assignments.

According to the Office of the University Registrar, “acceptable reasons for absence from class include illness, serious family emergencies, special curricular requirements (e.g., judging trips, field trips, and professional conferences), military obligation, severe weather conditions, religious holidays and participation in official university activities such as music performances, athletic competition or debate. Absences from class for court-imposed legal obligations (e.g., jury duty or subpoena) must be excused.”

For further information about the University of Florida’s attendance policy, please see the current Undergraduate Catalogue (https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx)

Students Requiring Accommodations

Students with disabilities requesting accommodations should first register with the Disability Resource Center (352-392-8565, www.dso.ufl.edu/drc/) by providing appropriate documentation. Once registered, students will receive an accommodation letter which must be presented to the instructor when requesting accommodation. Students with disabilities should follow this procedure as early as possible in the semester.

University Honesty Policy

UF students are bound by The Honor Pledge which states, “We, the members of the University of Florida community, pledge to hold ourselves and our peers to the highest standards of honor and integrity by abiding by the Honor Code. On all work submitted for credit by students at the University of Florida, the following pledge is either required or implied: “On my honor, I have neither given nor received unauthorized aid in doing this assignment.” The Honor Code (https://www.dso.ufl.edu/sccr/process/student-conduct-honor-code/) specifies a number of behaviors that are in violation of this code and the possible sanctions. Furthermore, you are obligated to report any condition that facilitates academic misconduct to appropriate personnel. If you have any questions or concerns, please consult with the instructor.

Class Demeanor

Students are expected to arrive to class on time and behave in a manner that is respectful to the instructor and to fellow students. Please avoid the use of cell phones and restrict eating to outside of the classroom. Opinions held by other students should be respected in discussion, and conversations that do not contribute to the discussion should be held at minimum, if at all.

Course Evaluation

Students are expected to provide feedback on the quality of instruction in this course by completing online evaluations at https://evaluations.ufl.edu. Evaluations are typically open during the last two or three weeks of the semester, but students will be given specific times when they are open. Summary results of these assessments are available to students at https://evaluations.ufl.edu/results/.

Counseling and Wellness Center

Contact information for the Counseling and Wellness Center: http://www.counseling.ufl.edu/cwc/Default.aspx, 392-1575; and the University Police Department: 392-1111 or 9-1-1 for emergencies.

Grading Scheme

This course includes the following assignments along with lecture and discussion sections. Be willing, engaged, and punctual – that is, attend the lectures, participate in discussions, and complete your reading/writing assignments on time.

In-class mid-term examination (30 points). The mid-term examination is scheduled on Week 6. Professor will address questions about this exam.

Take-home final examination (35 points). The final examination will be drawn from lectures and select readings. A review class will provide guidelines and questions on Week 15, and the examination will be due on Week 16.

Participation (5 points)

Quizzes (15 points). You will write 3 quizzes (5 points each). The quizzes will include multiple choices and short paragraphs based on topical materials.

Book review (5 points) You submit a 4-page, double-spaced abstract on a text of your choice (see readings below and consult the professor for ideas and samples). Original abstracts capture the core of a book’s arguments and its themes, and thus will take full credit. This assignment is open to submission until the last meeting.
Attendance, taken during the class meetings, will register 10 points toward your final grade. Worth noting is that the readings, assignments, and examinations must be completed by the date and time recorded on this syllabus. Though Professor Sahin reserves the right to make changes to this syllabus (with an in-advance warning if deemed necessary), the assignment schedules and UF regulations will stand at all times.
