Course Description Further develops the knowledge and skills necessary to appraise peer-reviewed pharmacogenomic literature. This course will provide opportunities to critically evaluate literature focused on both discovery and implementation of gene-drug pairs, become informed about research developments in pharmacogenomics, and further develop presentation skills in a seminar format.
Prerequisites Successful completion of Blocks 1-12 of the Doctor of Pharmacy curriculum including milestones
Co-requisites None
Rationale and Placement in Curriculum This is an elective course for Pharm.D. students. It is available to 3rd year students who have completed foundational coursework related to pharmacogenomics. This course is a component of a Pharmacogenomics Certificate that is currently requesting approval.
Course Objectives Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:
1. Retrieve published medical literature for use in research, design/planning of a clinical implementation, and clinical decision-making related to pharmacogenomics.
2. Present a critique of a pharmacogenomic journal article by analyzing the purpose, methods, results, and clinical significance of the primary literature article.
3. Ask analytical questions during a peer review of a pharmacogenomic article.
4. Use appropriate presentation skills when presenting a journal article to peers.

Course Textbook(s) and/or Other Assigned Reading • There are no required textbooks for this course.
• The journal articles selected and discussed during the sessions will be from the primary literature and may be accessed through the UF Health Sciences Center Library. Students may select articles from but not limited to the following journals to present during journal club sessions:
Clinical Pharmacology and Therapeutics
Clinical and Translational Science
Pharmacogenomics Journal
Pharmacogenomics (Future Medicine)
Pharmacogenetics and Genomics
Other journals may be used upon approval of the course instructor

Use the UF VPN to access UF Libraries Resources when off-campus. The UF HSC library staff can assist you with questions or issues related to accessing online library materials. For assistance contact your College of Pharmacy librarian or visit the HSC Library Website at this URL: http://www.library.health.ufl.edu/

Weekly Schedule of Topics

Week 2: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 4: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 6: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 8: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 10: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 12: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 14: Pharmacogenomic Journal Club 1.5 hr
Week 15: Exam - Written Appraisal of an Article

During the odd-numbered weeks, the student is required to attend at least 2 1-hour department of pharmacotherapy and translational research seminars. During these weeks the student will also be preparing for their individual journal presentation and reading the articles that will be discussed during the seminars.

Total contact hours = 16.5 hrs

Outside study involves preparation for presentation, reading of journal articles, and preparation for the exam.

Links and Policies

The Policies in the following link apply to this course. Review the Pharm.D. Course Policies carefully, at this URL: http://curriculum.pharmacy.ufl.edu/current-students/course-policies/

Grading Scheme

Presentation of a journal article (Appendix B) Satisfactory (At least 17 of 24 possible points)
Participation during journal presentations (Appendix C) Satisfactory (At least 7 of 9 possible points.)
Attendance of at least 2 seminars within the Department of Pharmacotherapy and Translational Research Satisfactory (Must attend at least 2 seminars)
Exam: Written critical appraisal of article (short answer) Satisfactory (Must achieve a score of at least 69.5% on the exam)

All items must be satisfactorily achieved in order to achieve a grade of satisfactory

Entrustable Professional Activities
1. Educate patients and professional colleagues regarding the appropriate use of medications. (ST11.1 Lead a discussion regarding a recently published research manuscript and its application to patient care)
2. Use evidence-based information to advance patient care. (ST12.1 Retrieve and analyze scientific literature to make a patient-specific recommendation.)

Course-Level Objectives
Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:
1. Retrieve published medical literature for use in research, design/planning of a clinical implementation, and clinical decision-making related to pharmacogenomics.
2. Present a critique of a pharmacogenomic journal article by analyzing the purpose, methods, results, and clinical significance of the primary literature article.
3. Ask analytical questions during a peer review of a pharmacogenomic article.
4. Use appropriate presentation skills when presenting a journal article to peers.
5. Use appropriate communication skills and professional affective skills when discussing pharmacogenomic journal articles with peer students and faculty.
6. Evaluate pharmacogenomic literature to identify gene-drug pairs that may have sufficient evidence for implementation into clinical practice.

Course Pre-requisites
Successful completion of Blocks 1-12 of the Doctor of Pharmacy curriculum including milestones

Course Co-requisites
None required
