Course Description

Response:
A study of Jamaican Creole, reggae music and Rastafari religion and culture designed to introduce students to the language, music and religion of the Caribbean island. Students use methods from linguistics, ethnomusicology, and religious studies to read Jamaican Creole, interpret reggae songs, and analyze the Rastafari culture they link to.

Prerequisites
Indicate all requirements that must be satisfied prior to enrollment in the course. Prerequisites will be automatically checked for each student attempting to register for the course. The prerequisite will be published in the Academic Catalog and must be formulated so that it can be enforced in the registration system. Please note that upper division courses (i.e., intermediate or advanced level of instruction) must have proper prerequisites to target the appropriate audience for the course.

Response:
Sophomore standing or LAS 2001 Introduction to Latin American Studies or AFH 2000 Africa in World History or AFA 2000 Introduction to African-American Studies or REL 2000 Introduction to Religion

Completing Prerequisites on UCC forms:

• Use "&" and "or" to conjoin multiple requirements: do not used commas, semicolons, etc.
• Use parentheses to specify groupings in multiple requirements.
• Specifying a course prerequisite (without specifying a grade) assumes the required passing grade is D- . In order to specify a different grade, include the grade in parentheses immediately after the course number. For example, "MAC 2311(B)" indicates that students are required to obtain a grade of B in Calculus I. MAC2311 by itself would only require a grade of D-.
• Specify all majors or minors included (if all majors in a college are acceptable the college code is sufficient).
• Permission of department” is always an option so it should not be included in any prerequisite or co-requisite.

Example: A grade of C in HSC 3502, passing grades in HSC 3057 or HSC 4558, and major/minor in PHHP should be written as follows:
HSC 3502(C) & (HSC 3057 or HSC 4558) & (HP college or (HS or CMS or DSC or HP or RS minor))
Co-requisites
Indicate all requirements that must be taken concurrently with the course. Co-requisites are not checked by the registration system.

Response:
None

Rationale and Placement in Curriculum
Explain the rationale for offering the course and its place in the curriculum.

Response:
Rationale
Jamaican Creole is spoken by 3.2 million people and many of Florida’s 250,000 Jamaican-heritage residents speak the language. Knowledge about Jamaican Creole and Jamaican culture is important for research in Jamaican communities, in addition to others in the Caribbean where English-lexifier Creoles are spoken. Reggae music and Rastafari are major cultural movements that have spread the Jamaican language and culture around the world.

Placement
This course will be included among the “Critical Concentration Course Offerings” in the B.A. in Foreign Languages and Literatures (FLL) in the Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures. By completing this course, students in our major will be able to earn credit toward graduation.

Among the Critical Concentration Course Offerings, this course will fit in the category of “Comparative Cultural Studies.”

In addition, the following units will be contacted about cross-listing this course with their own offerings, providing students in multiple units with the opportunity to earn credit toward the obtainment of a B.A. diploma:

Course Objectives
Describe the core knowledge and skills that student should derive from the course. The objectives should be both observable and measurable.

We are happy to do that. We have no class like that. How many seats were you thinking we should offer?

Take care,

Cross-listing support: Dr. Williams in the Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

Hi Ben,

Sounds like an interesting course. It’s probably better to develop the new course number through LLC and you can cross-list with LAS whenever you teach it. LAS course numbers are catchall course numbers that allow us to teach multiple courses under the same number at the 3000 and 4000 level. Glad to hear you enjoyed Germany! Best, Phil

No conflict, decline to crosslist: Dr. Orr in The School of Music

Greetings, Ben. After communicating with our Ethnomusicology faculty, they see absolutely no conflict/duplication between your course and what is being taught here. Some of our courses touch upon Jamaican music, but only briefly.

While the course may well be of interest to Ethnomusicology majors, our faculty does not believe it should be cross-listed (also listed as an MUH course), as the focus is not upon music, per se.

Best,
Kevin
