

Joint Meeting of Senate Council on Research and Scholarship and Budget Council

Monday December 13, 2010 1-3PM Tigert Room 226

Present from Senate Council for Research and Scholarship (SCoRS): Sandra Russo (Member), Robert Cook (Member), Debra Murie (Member), Henrietta Logan (Chair), Tom Walsh (Administrative Liaison)

Present from Budget Council (BC): James Klausner (Co-chair), Regina Bussing (Co-chair), Marc Heft (Member), Pradeep Kumar (Member), Cheri Brodeur (Member), Ed Poppell (Administrative Liaison), Matt Fajack (Administrative Liaison)

Invited Guests: Dean Paul Danieri (CLAS); Associate Dean Mark Law (Engineering); Dean Mark Rieger (IFAS)

The meeting was called to order at 1:00PM. Members of the two councils and guests introduced themselves. The next hour was devoted to brief presentations and discussion with each of the three deans about areas of positive and negative impact from RCM, unintended consequences on teaching, research, and scholarship, and potential solutions to the areas experiencing a negative impact. Discussion between members of the Budget Council and SCoRS followed with a focus on the impact of RCM on interdisciplinary teaching and research programs and on individual faculty.

Each council met to approve minutes from their previous meeting and set meeting times and agenda items for future meetings. SCoRS minutes were approved as amended and will be posted. Budget council meetings were approved without changes and will be posted.
