The meeting was called to order by Ann Wehmeyer at 1:31 p.m. After introductions, the April minutes were approved.

Dr. Wehmeyer explained the charge of the council and also some issues that past councils had discussed along with reviewing the council's report from last year.

- Free Space allocation for conferences organized by faculty that are held on campus.
 - There is no centralized office that handles all the space available on campus.
- Online Training - carryover from last year
- Update on the Faculty Club - Will invite Tom Mitchell to a meeting to give an update on progress.
- Continue following Music Bldg renovations
- Review how the University handles space made available for controversial figure and places for protest.
 - The council discussed the rescheduled Richard Spencer event on October 19th.

Carlos Dougnac asked if it is possible to have some joint committees (Lakes, Vegetation and Landscape; Parking and Transportation; Preservation of Historic Buildings; Land Use and Facilities Planning) meet at the same time for items that will have to go before certain committees.

- Suggestion was made that joint committees can all meet together in the beginning for common agenda items and then break out into individual committees.
