GET UP AND → GIVE

2013

It's not quite up there with singing and swaying to "We Are the Boys" just yet. But Get Up and Give is quickly becoming a UF homecoming tradition. Don't miss this annual 36-hour opportunity to give whatever you can.

From 8 a.m. Thursday, Nov. 7, to 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 8, we're asking alumni everywhere to Get Up and Give. If you've never given back to UF, this is the perfect time to start. With state funding and tuition generating just under 25% of UF's revenue, your support is strongly needed and encouraged, regardless of the amount.

As UF continues on the path to become a Top 10 university, you have a chance to further the cause — visit GetUpAndGive.ufl.edu on November 7 and make a difference. Come on Gators. Get Up and Give!

Be Sure to Remember
...the 7th of November!
