Chair, Senate Nominating Committee

Until now there were 7 members APB:

- 3 selected by the President from a set of candidates elected by the Senate
- 3 appointed by the President to insure broad coverage across campus, and
- the Vice President for Research.

At the April meeting, the Senate approved a resolution increasing the APB by 4 members:

- 2 additional members selected by the President from a set of candidates elected by the Senate, and
- 2 additional members appointed by the President.

At their June meeting, a resolution was passed by the Board of Trustees for implementation.

Faculty holding the following non-tenure eligible senior titles are eligible:

- Distinguished Clinical Professor,
- Clinical Professor,
- Extension Agent IV,
- Master Lecturer,
- Scientist,
- Scholar, or
- Engineer.

The nomination form is posted on the Senate website (www.senate.ufl.edu).

Deadline for completed nominations is 5 p.m. on September 15.

Senate special election scheduled for October 1- 8.

From this special election, 6 faculty names will be submitted to the President.

The President will then appoint 2 from the 6 as the additional Senate representatives to the APB.
