PRESIDENT

UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

The University of Florida's Board of Trustees invites nominations and applications for the position of President. The University of Florida is a comprehensive, national and international, land grant university, a member of the Association of American Universities (AAU), and is recognized and funded as the flagship public research university in the state of Florida.

The President is the chief executive officer of the University of Florida and is responsible for all operations of the University, including overall leadership and management of the institution, its academic enterprise, fundraising, the development of fiscal and budgetary plans and requests and the allocation of resources. The President also has oversight responsibilities for close private affiliates, including hospitals, a foundation, a research foundation, agricultural research entities, a development company, an investment management company, and an athletic association, among others. The President represents the University in the State of Florida as well as nationally and internationally and reports to the
