Faculty members play a central role in shared governance at UF, in units at every level:

- University
- College
- Departments and Centers
- And even Statewide
Five Principles of Shared Governance

1. Mutuality, Collegiality and Collaboration
   - Faculty and administration express support for responsibilities of one another
   - Either faculty or administration can call meetings of unit
   - Unit has a joint process for setting priorities for unit resources

2. Transparency
   - Faculty and administration regularly report to one another
   - Unit has processes that establish open meeting requirements
   - Unit has readily available written guidelines and policies
Five Principles of Shared Governance

3. Representative Participation
   - Faculty elect members and/or chairs for faculty committees
   - The unit has an elected body with elected leadership that represents faculty views

4. Mutual Accountability
   - Unit engages in regular evaluation of timeliness of responses to requests for information and consultation
   - Unit regularly assesses effectiveness of shared governance and makes modifications where necessary
Five Principles of Shared Governance

5. Clarity of Roles

- Unit has policy for areas of faculty and administration responsibilities for determination, recommendation, and consultation
- Unit has due process rules for resolution of differences between faculty and administrators
Indicators of Shared Governance (AAUP Website)

- BOT and President verbally acknowledge the importance of shared governance
- Faculty view participation in shared governance as a worthwhile faculty responsibility
- Institution fosters SG by maintaining reasonable workloads & supporting service work
- Faculty members can express dissenting views on governance without reprisal
- Campus climate supports a diversity of ideas
- Relationships between faculty, administrators, and governing board are cooperative
- Communications are transparent and carried out in good faith
Indicators of Shared Governance (AAUP Website)

- Given reasonable time, the faculty, administrators, and board respond expeditiously to requests from each other
- Faculty committees determine educational policy, curriculum design, curriculum review, and standards for evaluating teaching and scholarship
- Faculty committees largely determine standards for hiring, retention and promotion of faculty
- Faculty sets agendas, chooses representatives and leadership, and establishes procedures for committees that oversee those areas in which the faculty has primacy
- Faculty has an influential role in developing the institutional budget
- The faculty has a strong influence on the selection and evaluation of academic administrators
The Faculty Senate shall be the legislative body of the University, thereby providing a forum for mutual exchange of ideas between senior officers and faculty.

– UF Constitution
In this capacity, the Senate shall take cognizance of, and may legislate with respect to matters which concern more than one college, school, or other major academic unit, or which are otherwise of general university interest.

–UF Constitution
The organization and operation of the Faculty Senate is specified in the UF Constitution and Bylaws.

Senate members are elected proportionally according to the number of faculty in each college (with a maximum of 25), for a total of 150 Senators.
The Faculty Senate is designed to be a deliberative body in which active and evolving discussion with colleagues shapes policy.

Accordingly, no proxy or absentee votes are allowed.
