- 300 outstanding digital collections
- Nearly 14 million pages
- 78,000 subjects

The Institutional Repository

The Institutional Repository at the University of Florida (IR@UF) is the digital archive for the intellectual output of the University of Florida community, and includes research, news, outreach, and educational materials.

The IR is a central and secure place for any member of the UF community, professors, students, researchers, etc., to store, archive, display, showcase, share, highlight and visualize their output.

LibGuides

Functional and subject specialist librarians create guides to their areas of expertise called LibGuides.

LibGuides can be found at <http://guides.uflib.ufl.edu> or type libguides into the search box on the home page.

The screenshot displays the UF George A. Smathers Libraries website. At the top, the navigation bar includes the UF logo, the text "George A. Smathers Libraries", and a link for "Off-Campus Access". Below the navigation bar, the breadcrumb trail reads "UF Libraries / Guides @ UF / Library Guides / Advertising / Home". The main heading is "Advertising: Home", with a sub-heading "Research Resources for Advertising". A search box labeled "Search this Guide" is present. A horizontal menu contains links for "Home", "Databases/Journals/Trade Pubs", "Advertising Websites/Organizations", "Finding Dissertations", "Connect From Off Campus", "RefWorks/Citation Resources", and "ADV 3500". The "Media Planning" link is highlighted. On the left, there is a "Quick Links" section with a list of links: "UF Library Catalog", "Inter-Library Loan: Request Materials Not Owned by UF", "Course Reserves", and "George A. Smathers Libraries Home Page". The central content area features a "OneSearch" search box with tabs for "OneSearch", "Library Catalog", "Online Journals", "Databases", and "Google Scholar". Below the search box, there is a "New Advertising Titles" section with a message: "For additional titles pertaining to advertising check the Library Catalog. Sorry, there has been a problem processing the feed request." On the right, a "Subject Guide" section features a photo of April Hines and an "Email Me" button. A vertical "Ask Us!" button is located on the far right edge of the page.
