Power BI

Power BI Pro is now part of GatorCloud

- GatorCloud - Power BI Pro is now a standard tool in the GatorCloud - Office 365 portal:
<https://cloud.it.ufl.edu/collaboration-tools/office-365/>
- Desktop App - Power BI Pro's desktop app is also available via the Microsoft Store using the download link provided in the Power BI Pro menu (follow the link above). Installation of the desktop product should be performed in conjunction with local IT support staff.
- Training - over 30 courses with 50+ hours of Power BI training content is available in UF's LinkedIn Learning offering, which is free to all faculty, staff and students: <https://training.it.ufl.edu/linkedin/>
- Roadmap - UFIT is partnering with UF core offices to develop a plan that enables Power BI as an enterprise solution including access to data managed by UFIT. In the meantime, Power BI users can continue using data sources they are familiar with.

Note: Power BI Pro subscribers who have already paid UFIT Software Licensing Services for this year's licenses will be refunded.

- Dr. Aaron Thomas is Associate in Data Science within the Enterprise Reporting & Analytics team at UFIT with an emphasis upon student success and course analytics. Recent work includes deploying machine learning models and educational data mining to optimize and route student services along with evaluation of program efficacy. Dr. Thomas received a PhD in Curriculum and Instruction with an emphasis in educational technology from the University of Florida and was a post-doctoral researcher at UF's Online Learning Institute with a focus on analytics. He was a Fulbright Fellow (Bulgaria) and has received funding from both National Science Foundation and the National Endowment for the Humanities.
- Matthew M. Rust, M.S., J.D. serves as the Senior Executive Director of Campus Career and Advising Services at IUPUI. In this role, he oversees advising and career services in University College as well as providing campus-wide leadership for technology, training, professional development, and assessment of career and advising programs. Since Spring 2020, he has led a campus-wide student success intervention that utilizes an analytic computed from students' LMS activity.
- John Whitmer, Ed.D. is a Senior Fellow in Data Science with the Federation for American Scientists and Chief Researcher Officer with Chi2 Labs. With over 15 years conducting R&D in educational technology, he collaborates with stakeholders within the Institute for Education Sciences within the U.S. Department of Education to implement data science into operational programs, expand access and usability of IES data, and support creation of an ongoing data science fellowship program.
