Description of request	There is a national certificate in Family Life Educator from the National Council on Family Relations (NCFR). Students confuse the UF certificate as equivalent to the national certificate despite our best efforts to advise. Given this certificate is 39 credits and nearly all students who pursue this certificate are FYCS students, we will continue to offer the courses as they are part of the FYCS curriculum and students can elect to complete national requirements via the FYCS undergraduate degree program. Our evidence in support of these changes come from faculty and administrative review of issues associated with continuing to offer the UF certificate.
