Long form:

Public Speaking Lab: Located on the fifth floor of Rolfs Hall, the Dial Center Public Speaking Lab offers free assistance to those seeking to develop their public speaking skills. Visit the website for drop-in hours and appointment booking. Trained lab staffers can help polish your oral presentation skills by giving advice on research, helping you manage your outlining and organization, listening and giving feedback on delivery, and helping you manage public speaking nervousness, among other issues. If you have questions about a visit with the lab, please feel free to contact the Lab Director, Dr. Dennis McCarty, at d.mccarty@ufl.edu.
