Conversation About the First Amendment –
October 30, 2020 @ 2:00 p.m.

Join a Conversation about the First Amendment on Friday, October 30th, at 2:00 p.m. at: https://ufl.zoom.us/j/93076148640.

Our moderator is Laura Ann Rosenbury, Dean and Levin, Mabie & Levin Professor of Law. The Dean’s research and teaching focus on the law of private relationships, exploring how law and social norms interact in family law, employment discrimination law, and property law. Her work has been published in the Yale Law Journal, Michigan Law Review, University of Pennsylvania Law Review, Cornell Law Review, and in many other journals and books. Dean Rosenbury was elected to the American Law Institute in 2010 and was named a fellow of the American Bar Foundation in 2014. Our two panelists are Clay Calvert and Ricardo Sandoval-Palos. Clay Calvert is a Professor of Law, Brechner Eminent Scholar in Mass Communication, and Director of the Marion B. Brechner First Amendment Project at UF. He teaches both undergraduates and law students, and he coordinates the joint JD/MA program for the College of Journalism and Communications. He has more than 150 law journal articles on freedom of expression-related topics. Ricardo Sandoval-Palos is the Public Editor of PBS. In this role, he is responsible for examining matters of editorial integrity, journalism, and production practice. He is known for being a journalist with deep experience in, and a passion for, an independent press. His work has been recognized by the Overseas Press Club, the Inter-American Press Association, the Gerald Loeb Awards, Boston College’s Myers Center Awards, and the Greater Los Angeles Press Club. He is a board member of the First Amendment Coalition, which pursues press freedom, access to information, and government transparency issues. If you cannot attend this Friday’s webinar, it will be recorded. We encourage you to submit your questions in advance to https://ufl.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_b7RDDW3Rxdy5vi5 with your name.
