Chair’s Report

David C. Bloom, Chair
- Chair Bloom thanked Faculty Senate committee and council members and Senators for their work on behalf of the faculty and for their participation in yesterday’s emergency Faculty Senate meeting on academic freedom. The strong support of academic freedom was acknowledged. Two Faculty Senate-led Ad Hoc Committees are in progress. One is a fact-finding committee to examine the hiring practices in the UF College of Medicine and specifically of faculty member and newly appointed Florida Surgeon General Dr. Joseph Ladapo. The second will focus on post-tenure review. Both will report their findings to the Faculty Senate.
- Nominations, including self-nominations are now open to all faculty for service on University Committees and Councils. The Committee Nomination Form and details are available on the Faculty Senate home page and in the ‘Committees & Councils’ tab. Nominations close January 31.
- The next Distinguished Professor Lecture will take place following the next Faculty Senate meeting on December 16, 2021 at 5 p.m. in the Reitz Union Chamber. Distinguished Professor and Frederick E. Fisher Eminent Scholar W. Robert Knechel from the Warrington College of Business will present ‘Who Do You Trust? Accounting and the (Political) Economy.’

President’s Report

Action Items:

COVID Resolution

- Welfare Council Resolution
- August 26, 2021 Faculty Senate Resolution
- Chair Bloom provided a brief introduction of both above resolutions: the resolution passed by Faculty Senate on August 26, 2021 and the Welfare Council resolution which contains final modifications of the no-confidence resolution.
- Welfare Council Chair Sarah Lynne provided an overview of the resolution timeline and content.
During the Welfare Council meeting, members discussed the Senate feedback that the first ‘whereas’ statement is no longer accurate due to changing, documented COVID-19 transmission rates. Dr. Lynne clarified that the Welfare Council will not suggest any amendments to today’s resolution because it is time-stamped and therefore accurately reflects the ever changing COVID picture at that particular moment.

- Chair Bloom reiterated that the Faculty Senate Steering Committee, which did not endorse this resolution, voted to add this item as an item to today and last month’s Faculty Senate agenda so that it could be heard and discussed by Faculty Senators. He clarified that the Steering Committee unanimously rejected the resolution for reasons which included that the resolution was redundant to the one passed in August and did not provide a remedy.
- Senators Vander Zanden (CLAS), Timothy Murtha (DCP), and Theresa Antes (CLAS) expressed their support for the resolution.
- A motion to vote by paper ballot attained the required endorsement of 20 Senators.
- A motion to approve the resolution carried with 72 in support and 31 opposed.
