1. Meeting began with course review:

Course#	Title	Current GE & GR	Requested	Approved/Denied
ANT 4801	Ethnographic Methods	S	E6	Approved
MUR 3104	Music and the Catholic Church	None	H, N, E2	Approved H & E2 Denied N

2. Gordon Rule Proposal as an information item at the Faculty Senate meeting went well. There was only one question and it was addressed. The next meeting March 20th will be important as a vote on the Proposal will occur. Please ask for the support of your Senators.
3. Spring Course evaluation will begin with each Committee member selecting one or two courses in the list of ten top courses. Once the course selection is made we will contact the Department chairs requesting a syllabus, class attendance, and arrange the visit. We will provide a checklist for the course review.

4. Describe General Education @ UF Today:

- ❖ Cafeteria Style
- ❖ Limited follow-up oversight
- ❖ General in categories/not in courses

Determine the Bullets for where we would like to go. Dr. Glover suggested the committee contemplate creating an Undergraduate in Civic Education in the College of Liberal Arts & Sciences. Article distributed General Education in the 21st Century.

5. Dr. Wubah addressed the Committee suggesting a retreat to work on a complete outline of the Universities goals for General Education.
