General Education Council Agenda
April 16, 2004
9:30a in Bryan 100

Discussion:

The University Curriculum Committee approved the two proposals forwarded by the Council. The proposals will be presented to the Faculty Senate. Implementation date is tentatively Fall 2005.

The proposal regarding A/P Exams and Writing Credit was distributed at the meeting and will be submitted for the May 4 agenda (page 3).

Courses: Old Business

CHM1025, Introduction to Chemistry

November 22, 2002, the course was denied P by the Council due to the pass/fail grading arrangement. The University Curriculum Committee approved a revision of the grading scheme from S/U to letter grades at the December 2003 meeting. Professor Vala is petitioning for GenEd P code.

Professor Vala and Jeanna Mastrodicasa's emailed responses to the current P petition are attached (pages 10-11).
