Comments:

 - ~~Does the “Paper grading rubric” pertain to both papers for the course? If yes, this should be made clearer in the syllabus.~~ [The answer to this question is "yes," and the descriptions of both papers explicitly say "Paper will be graded according to the writing rubric at the end of this document." Email response, 2/28/22]
 - ~~How is the extra-curricular report graded, is there a rubric?~~ [This one needed to be supplemented. It has been updated.]

 - Please include a suggested writing handbook, per Writing course requirements.

- ~~Is the final capstone project a group project? The course description states it is, however the assignment details do not. [Yes, it is a group project with, individual reflection papers.]~~
 - ~~If this is a group assignment how will students be graded. [Rubric/criteria updated.]~~
 - ~~Is the assignment intended to count toward the writing requirement? [No there are separate individual writing assignments]~~
- Will the films be made available for students on loan or from the library? Otherwise, these may need to be included in materials fees. [Available from library]

Temporary Quest Courses

4. Course: IDS 2935– Intersecting Identities in American Buddhism [CA][A]
Requesting: D, H, Q1T
Submitter: Mario Poceski
Link: <https://secure.aa.ufl.edu/Approval/reports/16576>
Comments:
- ~~Please provide more detail regarding the available bonus which is “based on the instructor’s discretion”. Can a rubric for attendance and participation be provided? [I Changed the title of that whole section, into “Attendance and Participation.” I also changed and clarified some of the wording, in the light of the comments I received, esp. in the third paragraph. Email response, 3/1/2022]~~
 - ~~Small point: The Analytical Essay (pg. 2) suggest a final paper of "around 1,000 words, inclusive of notes and citations." The Quest I expectation is an analytical essay of 1,000 words. [I changed the wording in that section, per the suggestion I received.]~~
5. Course: IDS 2935– Visual Meaning and Representation [CA]
Requesting: H, Q1T
Submitter: Fatimah Tuggar
Link: <https://secure.aa.ufl.edu/Approval/reports/16590>
Comments:
- Four assignments: two emphasize artistic creation, portfolio and writing assignment. Participation is ~10%. All assignments are associated with the approximate 2nd half of the semester.
 - This may be something to consider, will student grades be turned around in adequate time for them to adjust/adapt to instructor wants/needs?
 - Rubrics are provided...but it's unclear how dichotomous rubrics are related to interval scores. Writing rubric includes 5 components, are these are equally weighted? Is satisfactory full credit, unsatisfactory no credit? Artist rubric includes 6 components, how are these weighted? Same questions as above.

Participation rubric includes 3 components but has 3 anchors...same questions as above.
