Meeting Agenda

1. Goals and direction for the coming year
2. Application process for ADTS applicants

Notes

1. Goals and direction for coming year

Mike Kane led a discussion outlining goals for the coming year. After his meeting with Associate Provost Angel Kwolek-Folland, the following goals were suggested: 1) campus wide workshop on peer assessment (with funding support for provost office); 2) online learning with the academy filling in gaps on online learning and evaluation; and 3) professional development for post-docs. Those in attendance also expressed interest in meeting with the new president to discuss his ideas and priorities as well as his thoughts on a campus teaching and learning center. There was discussion on revisiting the proposal by the academy outlining the development of a Teaching and Learning center.

2. Application process for ADTS applicants

Gail Kauwell shared the revised and updated application for ADTS.

Meeting adjourned at 3:00 pm.

Kimberly Moore, Secretary of the Academy of Distinguished Teaching Scholars, respectfully submits these notes on 10/27/14.
