

Faculty Senate Resolution on Posthumous Recognition of Faculty 11.09.2023

WHEREAS faculty contributions are essential to the mission of the University of Florida, and

WHEREAS the University of Florida has a policy to provide posthumous recognition for students who have passed away while pursuing their degrees, and

WHEREAS the University of Florida has no policy to provide posthumous recognition for faculty who have passed away while in service to the University, and

BE IT RESOLVED that the Faculty Senate of the University of Florida supports the adoption of a policy to provide recognition of faculty contributions for those whose untimely deaths cut short their contributions to the University and its students.
