FACULTY ROLES

Faculty members play a central role in shared governance at UF, in units at every level:

- University
- College
- Departments and Centers
- Statewide

FIVE PRINCIPLES OF SHARED GOVERNANCE

1. Mutuality, Collegiality and Collaboration

Faculty and administration express support for responsibilities of one another

Either faculty or administration can call meetings of unit

Unit has a joint process for setting priorities for unit resources

2. Transparency

Faculty and administration regularly report to one another

Unit has processes that establish open meeting requirements

Unit has readily available written guidelines & policies

FIVE PRINCIPLES OF SHARED GOVERNANCE

3. Representative Participation

Faculty elect members and/or chairs for faculty committees

The unit has an elected body with elected leadership that represents faculty views

4. Mutual Accountability

Unit engages in regular evaluation of timeliness of responses to requests for information and consultation

Unit regularly assesses effectiveness of shared governance and makes modifications where necessary

5. Clarity of Roles

Unit has policy for areas of faculty and administration responsibilities for determination, recommendation, and consultation

Unit has due process rules for resolution of differences between faculty and administrators

INDICATORS OF SHARED GOVERNANCE

- Board of Trustees and President verbally acknowledge the importance of shared governance
- Faculty members can express dissenting views on governance without reprisal
- Campus climate supports a diversity of ideas
- Relationships between faculty, administrators, and governing board are cooperative
- Given reasonable time, the faculty, administrators, and board respond expeditiously to requests from each other

- Faculty committees determine educational policy, curriculum design, curriculum review, and standards for evaluating teaching and scholarship
- Faculty committees largely determine standards for hiring, retention and promotion of faculty
- Faculty sets agendas, chooses representatives and leadership, and establishes procedures for committees that oversee those areas in which the faculty has primacy
- Faculty has an influential role in developing the institutional budget

FACULTY SENATE

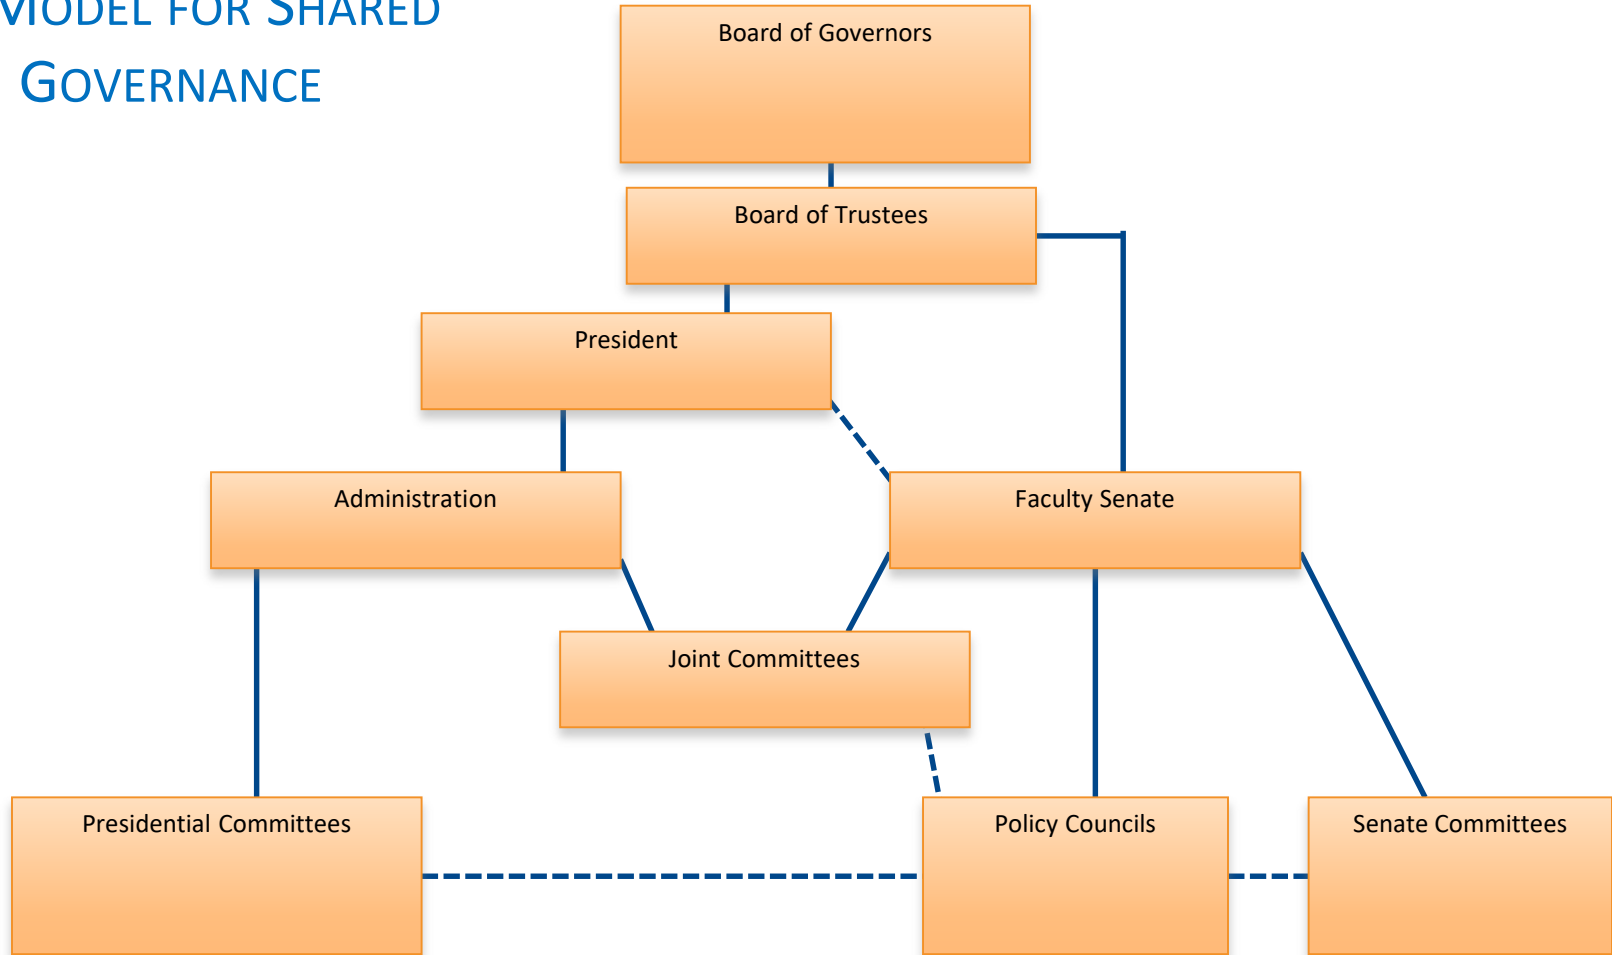

- The Faculty Senate shall be the legislative body of the University, thereby providing a forum for mutual exchange of ideas between senior officers and faculty
- In this capacity, the Senate shall take cognizance of, and may legislate with respect to matters which concern more than one college, school, or other major academic unit, or which are otherwise of general university interest

SENATE MEMBERSHIP AND PRINCIPLES

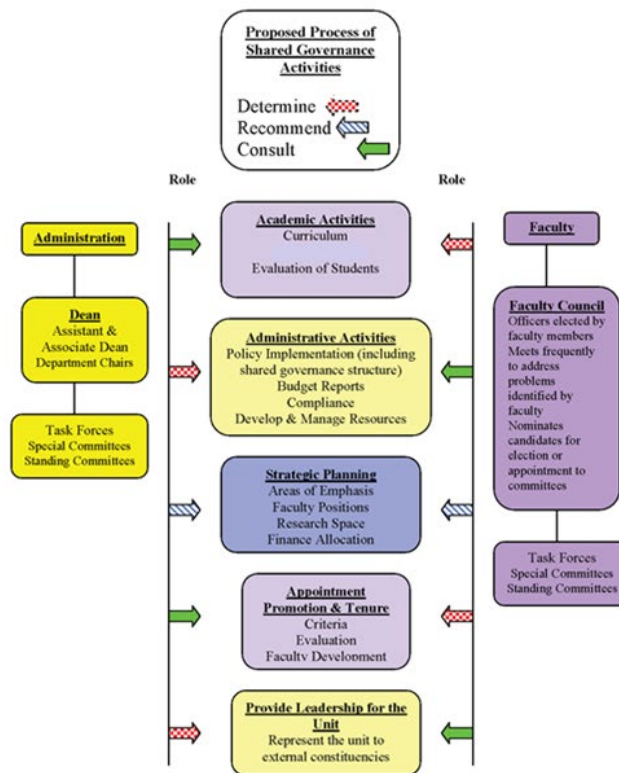

- Senate members are elected proportionally according to the number of faculty in each college (with a maximum of 25), for a total of 150 Senators
- The Faculty Senate is designed to be a deliberative body in which active and evolving discussion with colleagues shapes policy
- Accordingly, no proxy or absentee votes are allowed
- Absence from three consecutive meetings without notice constitutes resignation from the Senate
