I. Welcome and Opening Remarks: Cheryl Gater, Associate Provost, Accreditation, Assessment, and Curriculum,
   - Dr. Gater announced that Dr. Jacobs would not be in attendance and called the meeting to order.

II. Study Abroad Successes: Marta Wayne, Associate Provost, UF International Center
   - Dr. Wayne presented on the study abroad program, including information regarding enrollment, benefits, and improvements made. Dr. Wayne welcomed any additional feedback.

III. OneStop Responsiveness and Reliability: Marshall Haning, Acting Associate Dean, College of the Arts
   - Dr. Haning briefly relayed feedback he received regarding UF OneStop and opened the floor to other members to inquire if they have received similar feedback within their colleges. After brief discussion, Dr. Gater requested guidance from enrollment management on how they would like colleges to report concerns in the future so they could be addressed in real time. Enrollment Management will discuss it internally and provide an update at the next meeting.

IV. Open Discussion and General Updates – Items from the Floor (All)
   - Dr. Gater opened the floor for additional questions and the following were discussed:
     i. Quest: Members inquired about the status of the Quest Program; Dr. Gater clarified that Quest remains an active program within UF, but modifications may be required. Dr. Gater stated that Dr. Jacobs will be providing additional information soon.
     ii. UF International Requirement: Dr. Shorey indicated that the international requirement is in a similar circumstance as Quest and presented members with an analysis of requirement, including how students have fulfilled it in the past. Dr. Shory proposed three potential options and requested that members send any additional feedback by the end of the week.

V. Next Meeting: Tuesday, May 5, 2026 at 1:30pm (Criser Hall 201 LVV Presentation Room)
